

ehrliche arbeit – freelance office for culture

ehrliche arbeit – the name means “honest work” in German – is a platform for performing arts. Founded in 2006 and based in Berlin, we provide infrastructure for independent projects. Our work includes the development of artistic concepts, project development in combination with project and production management, press and public relation work, dramaturgy, consultation on strategic and financial development in the arts, cultural policy analysis, as well as text production and translations. We also teach workshops and seminars, as well as coach and provide one-on-one consultation. We work with individual artists, temporary group structures, permanent ensembles, collectives, institutions, festivals and programs in Berlin and beyond.

We have a longstanding partnership with the choreographer Christoph Winkler, the music theatre collective Oper Dynamo West, director Johannes Müller/Philine Rinnert and the performance collectives She She Pop and Monster Truck as well as the artist duo Daniel Kötter / Hannes Seidl.

We are a member of the Dramaturgs’ Society (dg e.V.), the Association of Independent Performing Arts Berlin (LAFT e.V.), the International Theatre Institute (ITI e.V.) and the Umbrella Association for Contemporary Dance Berlin (ztb e.V.).

We are a collective – no hierarchies, same salary for all.

ehrliche arbeit – freelance office for culture are Anka Belz, Janina Benduski, Anna Mareike Holtz, Nina Klöckner, Sandra Klöss, Andrea Oberfeld, Elena Polzer and Ilka Rümke.

Junior Partners are Theresa Pommerenke and Anna Wille.
